STI Milano was established by a group of professionals in the fields of Architecture and Design and born out from their vision of bringing together the world of Haute couture with the Architecture of excellence, keeping the Design as common denominator:

The courageous idea and the refined hand of the haute couture tailor, meeting the creative thought and rational pencil of the architect of excellence in order to conceive customized solutions that stand the test of time.

For STI Milano, aiming to be a brand that symbolises Style and Quality means knowing how to create unique products, combining aesthetics, high-quality and innovation with a strong system of values.

Not only is the Group known for the hallmark style of its products, but also for the principles guiding its actions, which are laid down in its Code of Ethics.

These principles are inspired by the concept of substance and the conviction that reliability means, first and foremost, creating a system capable of enduring through time, with respect for all the resources that the Group draws on and with the awareness that the future to come depends on the today customers' satisfaction and the trust that the Group is able to build in the present

STI - NIGHT

The values of Italian manufacturing on which the company is built are a precious heritage that, year after year, STI imbues upon the design and manufacture of its collections.

We explore emerging design and lifestyle trends, redefining the role of rest in modern homes and hospitality spaces. By blending innovation, craftsmanship, and advanced technology, we create beds and bedroom solutions that are more than just functional they become focal points of comfort and style, shaping the way we experience sleep and relaxation.

Creating a good product requires creativity, craftsmanship, experience and the finest materials, with a strong awareness that each type of process has an impact on the surrounding environment.

Therefore, the STI Milano Group is committed to monitoring the processes involved in creating its products and selecting materials according to precise criteria.

LEGOLAS

DESIGN BY : STI MILANO STUDIO

Generous proportions for an elegant and enveloping bed.

Designed by the STI Milano studio to become the centerpiece of the bedroom, where it performs best when positioned in the center of the room. It is distinguished by its slightly inclined headboard and the sophisticated decor effect of the interior upholstery.

LEGOLAS

| 9 — NIGHT

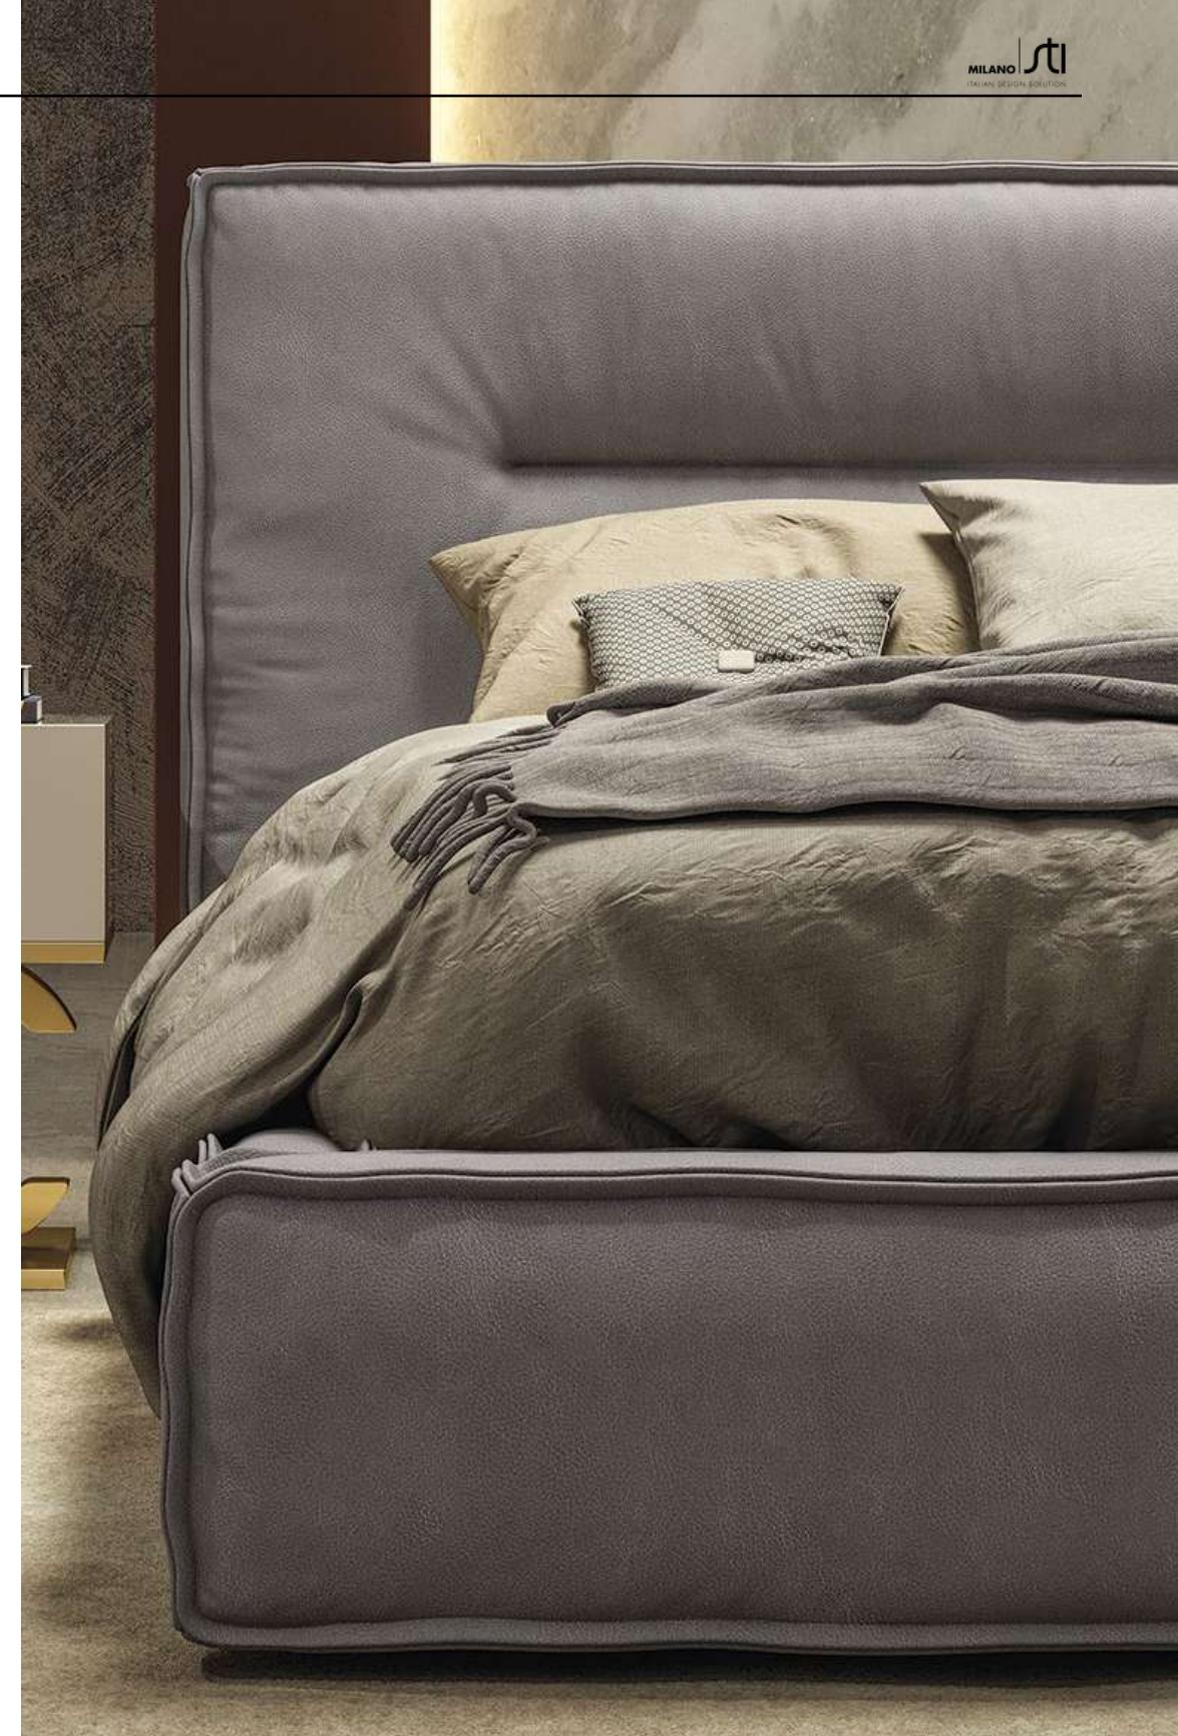

Inspired by fluidity and precision, the Legolas bed embodies a perfect balance of elegance and resilience. With its sleek, streamlined form and masterful craftsmanship, it evokes a sense of effortless lightness while maintaining unwavering strength.

DESIGN BY : STI MILANO STUDIO

The Hollywood bed is a tribute to timeless glamour, designed for those who appreciate both style and substance. Inspired by the effortless allure of old Hollywood, it blends bold sophistication with a sense of indulgent comfort.

The striking headboard, generously padded and wrapped in sumptuous upholstery, invites you to sink in and unwind.

HOLLYWOOD

The refined details give the Hollywood bed a versatile appeal, seamlessly fitting into both modern and classic interiors. Every element is thoughtfully crafted, from the soft-touch fabrics to the impeccable stitching, ensuring that this bed is not just a piece of furniture, but a statement of taste and personality.

SUITE

DESIGN BY : STI MILANO STUDIO

Designed by STI Milano, the Suite bed embodies refined sophistication and contemporary comfort. Its plush, upholstered frame and gently curved headboard create a sense of warmth and relaxation, making it the perfect retreat for rest and rejuvenation.

Elevated on sleek, understated legs, the design balances softness with modern minimalism, seamlessly fitting into any serene and stylish living space.

SUITE

Paired with carefully curated furnishings and rich textures, the Suite bed transforms the bedroom into a harmonious sanctuary where elegance meets everyday luxury.

HILLS

DESIGN BY : STI MILANO STUDIO

Hills is a sculptural embodiment of calm a bed that captures the gentle rhythm of nature and brings it into the heart of the home. Inspired by the rolling silhouettes of a quiet landscape, its softly contoured headboard rises like a horizon at dusk, offering a serene backdrop to moments of rest and reflection.

Crafted with STI Milano's signature attention to proportion and material harmony, HILLS pairs generous upholstery with subtle curvature, creating an enveloping experience both visually and physically.

HILLS

The bed's elegant base flows seamlessly into its form, grounding the piece with a sense of permanence while maintaining an airy, inviting presence.

MAJOR

DESIGN BY : STI MILANO STUDIO

A bed can break the linearity of tradition to follow the most unexplored trajectories of design: Major abandons the straight path and chooses the irreverent lateral curvature of the headboard, elegantly marked by the cadenced quilting and the significant thickness of the raised edge.

LAURENCE

DESIGN BY : STI MILANO STUDIO

Laurence is the ideal bed for any style. It fits well in a contemporary bedroom as well as in a classic one. The curved lines and proportions, together with the wide range of coverings available, make it elegant and always welcome, at night and during the day.

LAURENCE

The key point of the STI Milano's identity is the full expression of the concept of "Made in Italy", which takes shape in the search for balanced solutions between tradition and innovation: the knowledge and experience of talented craftsmen coexist with the most modern technologies.

RIVER

A dark, monochromatic photograph of a person's hands working with fabric in a workshop setting. The person is wearing a long-sleeved shirt, and their hands are positioned over a large piece of fabric, possibly inspecting or preparing it. The background is blurred, showing what appears to be a sewing machine and other workshop equipment. The overall mood is focused and professional.

The materials and technologies conceived are an integral part of the study carried out for every product that is designed to highlight both its own identity and customer requirements.

Promoting the intrinsic quality of every product has always ensured the excellence of STI Milano products. This requires investments in the search for innovative solutions and partnerships to pursue a process of continuous improvement.

STI LEATHERS

STI Milano, synonymous with craftsmanship and sophistication, presents an exquisite range of luxury leather finishes for our discerning clientele. Our dedication to perfection is reflected in every inch of our leather, where quality meets aesthetics to create an unparalleled sensory experience. From buttery-soft, full-grain leathers that envelop you in unparalleled comfort to exquisitely textured and embossed options that redefine opulence, our collection caters to the most refined tastes. These leather finishes, available in an array of rich hues, transform each STI piece into a work of art that exudes timeless elegance.

Leather is a unique natural material which appreciates in value over time. STI leathers are carefully selected and treated in specialty leather works factories using advanced working and dyeing techniques. In an effort to retain the leathers natural qualities (wrinkles, scars, markings, shadings etc.) which are the defining qualities of any leather. When we cover our products with leather it may require more stitching than the same product covered in a different material and once each hide has been processed, it maintains a unique qualities that cannot be imitated or replicated further increasing its value.

STI FABRICS
